Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisors are required to disclose certain material facts about its associated personnel regarding any legal or disciplinary events, including criminal or civil action in a domestic, foreign or military court, or any proceeding before a state, federal or foreign regulatory agency, self-regulatory organization, or suspension or sanction by a professional association for violation of its conduct rules, that would be material to your evaluation of each officer or a supervised person providing investment advice. Mrs. Church has not been the subject of any such event.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

Investment advisor representatives are required to disclose outside business activities that account for a significant portion of their time or income, or that may present a conflict of interest with their advisory activities.

Neither Mrs. Church nor our advisory firm has a material relationship with the issuer of a security. She is not registered, nor has an application pending to register, as a registered representative of a broker/dealer or associated person of a futures commission merchant, commodity pool operator, or commodity trading advisor. She does not receive commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities, including that as a registered representative of a broker/dealer or the distribution or service ("trail") fees from the sale of mutual funds.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

Neither our advisory firm nor Mrs. Church is compensated for advisory services involving performance-based fees. Firm policy does not allow associated persons to accept or receive additional economic benefit, such as sales awards or other prizes, for providing advisory services to firm clients.

Item 6 - Supervision

Firm policies and procedures have been designed to ensure appropriate recordkeeping and supervision, and all associates are required to adhere to our firm's Code of Ethics and procedural guidelines. Mr. Conway, as Chief Compliance Officer, will monitor firm activities and the advice provided by performing the following ongoing reviews:

- Account opening documentation when the relationship is established
- Review of account transactions
- Assessments of the client's financial situation, objectives, and investment needs
- A review of client correspondence on an as needed basis
- Periodic internal firm review

Questions relative to the firm, its services or this Form ADV Part 2B brochure supplement may be made to the attention of Thomas B. Conway at (301) 321-3600. Additional information about the firm, other advisory firms, or an associated investment advisor representative is available on the Internet at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. A search of this site for firms may be accomplished by firm name or a unique firm identifier, known as an IARD or CRD number. The IARD number for The Connemara Group, LLC is 281262. The business and disciplinary history, if any, of an investment advisory firm and its representatives may also be obtained by contacting the Maryland Division of Securities or the state securities administrator in which the client resides.

Item 7 - Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

There have been neither awards nor sanctions or other matter where Mrs. Church or The Connemara Group has been found liable in an arbitration, self-regulatory or administrative proceeding. Neither Mrs. Church nor our advisory firm has been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
