PRIVACY POLICY

Investment advisers are required by law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. We are bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. Federal law gives customer-the right to limit some but not all sharing of personal information. It also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information.

TYPES OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL INFORMATION (NPI) WE COLLECT

We may collect nonpublic personal information about you that is either provided to us by you or obtained by us with your authorization. This can include but is not limited to your Social Security Number, Date of Birth, Banking Information and Financial Account Numbers and/or Balances, Sources of Income, Credit Card Numbers or Information.

PARTIES TO WHOM WE DISCLOSE INFORMATION

All Investment Advisers may need to share personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list reasons that we may share your personal information:

- For everyday business purposes – such as to perform detailed planning analyses using carefully vetted virtual planners or para-planners in addition to our own office staff, or to maintain software relating your account(s), or to respond to court orders and legal investigations;
- For specific planning engagements - at your specific written request we may share information with other professionals including attorneys, CPAs, bankers, investment or insurance professionals, other family members, etc.

If you are a new customer we may begin sharing your information on the day you sign our agreement. When you are no longer our customer, we may continue to share your information as described in this notice. However, you can contact us at any time to limit our sharing.

PROTECTING THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF CURRENT AND FORMER CLIENT'S INFORMATION

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use multiple security measures to comply with federal law. Computer safeguards include random dual-factor encryption access to professionally maintained secure remote servers with firewalls. Physical working files are secured onsite or offsite in safes or storage cabinets in buildings with multiple physical and/or electronic locks.

FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU THE RIGHT TO LIMIT SHARING - OPTING OUT

Federal law allows you the right to limit the sharing of your NPI. Please notify us immediately if you choose to opt out of these types of sharing.

Please call if you have any questions. Your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality financial services are very important to us.
